Dear Dr Hisarma:

Thanks for revising the paper. I think we may publish your work as a research note, not a full research paper. The research note offers rare but important background information for researchers interested in this area.

Can you do some reformatting according to Asian Ethnicity's style? Attached is an example for your kind information. You need to reformat your paper as close as to this example as possible. This means that you should use font size 11, single space between paragraphs, single space between sentences and there should be a section called "Note on Contributor" between ENDNOTES and Bibliography.

Third, the way you cite papers DOES NOT CONFORM TO AE'S STYLE. WE DO NOT USE IN-TEXT CITATION nor FOOTNOTES. YOU NEED TO CHANGE THEM TO ENDNOTES. Also, please note that we don't use multiple citations after each sentence. So, you can only have 1 citation after each sentence.

Lastly, please pay attention to your bibliography style. Double check the example publication in the attachment.

Dear Dr Hisarma:
(CC: Editorial assistant Hector)

Ref: Socio-cultural Change Influences the Changes of Simalungun Religion

Thanks for resubmitting your reformatted work. I still find some inconsistency in terms of style in the ENDNOTE and BIBLIOGRAPHY. I put down some comments directly in the attached text. Please correct. After that, please email our assistant Hector. He will double check. If everything is ok, he will submit the work to the publisher for copy editing and typesetting.

Sincerely,
JULIE CHEN
